Cafe-Restaurant with Bar in uncluttered ambience with tables and chairs by Donghia.
The fully glassed-in exterior of the building is immersed in different colour and light moods throughout the course of the day through an effective lighting system.
The interior decorator indulged in playfulness with the design of a round lounge at the head of the long room, which is separated by the use of columns. An opulent chandelier glitters in the centre of the cupola room above purple sofas and seaters in a charmingly set retro chic.
